REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY
(Next Sunday-11th November)

This year we are planning something a bit different at EGU, mindful of the War Memorial Service and the 2 Minutes Silence which take place right outside our building at the War Memorial:

We shall be opening up the Church to the community, as follows:

10am-12 Church open for quiet reflection

10.45am Act of Remembrance at the War Memorial

People are then welcome to go on to St. James to join in the town-wide Remembrance Service

Or stay at EGU for:

11.15am a time of Prayer with opportunity to remember those whose lives have been affected by war

In the evening at St. James:

6.00pm A joint Service of Communion in St. Stephen's Chapel

7.00pm Lighting of the Beacon on the Green outside St. James

PLEASE PRAY...

- * that the Lord will help us to love and care for those that we do not even like;
- * for the EMBA Assembly this Saturday, especially for Rev. Dr. Nick Ashton as he is inducted as a Regional Minister;
- * Praise God for the Supreme Court's acquittal of Aasia Bibi in Pakistan after she had spent eight years on death row, imprisoned for her faith. Pray for the Christian communities in Pakistan and other countries where Christians are persecuted - for their protection, and for boldness in their witness to their faith.
