

Welcome to
Eastgate Union Church, Louth
Church on the Corner

SUNDAY 11TH NOVEMBER 2018

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY:

We a opening up to the community, as follows:

10am-12 Church open for quiet reflection
 + Coffee & Cake in the Church Hall

10.45am Act of Remembrance at the War Memorial

People are then welcome to go on to St. James to join in the town-wide Remembrance Service, or stay at EGU for:

11.15am a time of Prayer with opportunity to remember those whose lives have been affected by war

Next Week

Worship led by Graham & Rachel Conway-Doel of Freeset

We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow all those who have lost their lives in conflicts; and all who through bereavement, disability and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror. Pray for all members of the armed forces who face danger today, also for their families and friends and all awaiting their safe return. We pray for Peace-makers and Peace -keepers who seek to keep the world secure and free.

May God give peace

DIRECTORY CHANGES

Because of the Data Protection Act the people concerned have agreed that their addresses be not published on this Notice Sheet.

Tim & Helen Wrench have moved;

Although Beth Kibby Johnson is still at the same address, it is not quite correct

However, their telephone numbers and email addresses remain the same, so they can still be contacted.

CHURCHES TOGETHER

We have just heard that we are invited to lead Carols in the Market Place from 11.30am - 12.00 noon on 2nd December. So our Service on that morning will therefore be at 10am to give us time to get to the market place.

LOUTH CHURCHES FOR REFUGEES

The drawstring bags are now available in church (donation of £1.50 requested) to make up Dignity Bags (for women) or Smiley Bags (for children) for Syrian refugees. Lists of what to put in each bag and a label to put on it are also available. Please leave completed bags in the Baptistry Chapel and give your £1.50 to Carol Irwin, who will then pass everything on to LCfR in January
